

LINDA'S HOUSE OF HOPE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

RE: GRAHAM DANIELS

I have known Graham Daniels for approximately five years, I was introduced to Graham through Roslyn Philips of the Festival of Light. Since that initial meeting Graham has become a great advocate of Linda's House of Hope, Graham has given his time, expertise and with his kind and timely donations.

Upon one of my first meetings I recall listening to Graham's conversation on how men had lost their integrity by using prostitutes, I was touched by the way he had such strong feelings and compassion for the victims of this horrendous life of vice.

After our meeting Graham said that he was thrilled that I was doing something positive with my life and he was extremely pleased there was 'someone' making a public statement about the 'Legalisation of Prostitution'. Graham then invited me to speak at a church in Strathalbyn.

Graham has been a continual source of encouragement for me personally and as God was aware of that need many prayers have been answered. Graham had much patience and time – which had not been afforded to me not even by my own father – these wonderful attributes had not been something I had been used to and was extremely grateful for as I had been caught up in that lifestyle of vice for a period of twenty years.

These qualities that Graham had exhibited to me were so valuable to my recovery and well being, Graham taught me to believe in myself, which in turn provided me with the strength to carry on. Graham also had the same wonderful attributes of love and dedication that he displayed to his wife Leanne and which I admired greatly.

I have been so privileged to have had a person of Grahams caliber as both a member of the Board and a Trustee for Linda's House of Hope. Graham's support and input helped to change not only my life but also directly help the lives of many others as well.

There are no words that could adequately express my thanks and gratitude for his unselfish acts of love and dedication for the broken lives that he has helped to mend – simply because he took the time to help and love us through this difficult period in our lives.

I perhaps may have walked away had it not been that God brought an 'angel' into our lives to help to repair and build – that you Graham and Leanne for your wonderful love and friendship.
