To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to offer my highest personal recommendation of Graham K. Daniels as a true man of God, husband, father, and businessman. I have had the privilege of knowing Graham for nearly seven years. During this time, I have watched Graham demonstrate the highest moral character in his business dealings and personal relationships. In addition, Graham's integrity, discretion and professionalism are without question. Moreover, Graham is deeply devoted to his wife, and their two children.

My background includes a 20-year career in commercial real estate prior to entering the health and fitness industry. My education includes a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management from LeTourneau University and a Master of Science Degree in Kinesiology from the University of North Texas. I am currently completing a Doctorate in Organizational Leadership from Regent University.

My experience in the health and fitness industry includes being a member of the fitness staff at the world renowned Cooper Fitness Center in Dallas, Texas, where for six years I was the head martial arts instructor and a personal trainer. In addition, I am certified as a Physical Fitness Specialist through the Cooper Institute for Aerobics Research, where I am an adjunct faculty member.

Furthermore, I am a Board of Advisor member of the American Council on Martial Arts, and serve as the ACMA's National Certification Director. The ACMA and the Cooper Institute for Aerobics Research co-sponsor an exercise science certification for martial arts instructors. My martial arts experience, since 1970, has permitted me to reach the level of 7th degree black belt, as an American-born master, in Tae Kwon Do. In addition, I hold the rank of 1st degree black belt in Kobudo (Okinawan weapons). I also am the founder and director of the Fellowship of Christian Martial Artists.

Secondly, my martial arts training has permitted me to perform bodyguard duties for many top-ranking executives, celebrities, and their families. For example, I have served as a bodyguard for the vice-chairman of an international banking firm, the leader of a large religious denomination, and the wife of a world famous rock and roll entertainer. Also, for the purpose of this letter, I have permission acknowledge that I have performed bodyguard duties for Graham, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Daniels.

In closing, my wife and I own and operate the Alpha Fitness Center in Dallas, Texas. More importantly, we are blessed with two wonderful children.
